DWLI'S HELP FOR PARENTS:
Comparisons

Dwli says: do you know this verse: Grey like a donkey, Red like a fire, White like the snow, Black like a crow. There is a comparison in every line because you say that something is like something else.

1. Choose a word from the box to complete these comparisons: Answer: a. Dwli was snoring like a pig, b. môr = sea (Alys's eyes are as blue as the ——), c. llygoden = mouse (You must walk as quietly as a ——); ch. mellten = bolt of lightning (The car is travelling as quickly as ——), d. malwoden = snail (The man was walking as slowly as a ——); dd. pluen = feather (The paper was as light as a ——).

* Now, colour in the Cymariaethau star on page 48.
